God our Father, you have made us members of Christ and of his Church in this parish.

May our worship be the offering of our hearts and lives to you.

Help us to reach out in welcome to newcomers and visitors,
to encourage and care for each other

in friendship and fellowship,
and to grow in grace and in love;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Today's Services

8.00am Holy Communion

9.30am Sung Eucharist

Preacher: The Rev'd Sam Goodes

A special welcome to all who are worshipping with us for the first time or visiting us today. We especially welcome those visiting us from other areas.

Please join us for a cup of tea or coffee after the service.

Sentence of the Day:

'Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which does not satisfy? Eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food.

Isaiah 55.2

Prayer of the Day

Living God,
whose Son Jesus fed the hungry
with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom:
renew your people with your heavenly grace,
and in all our weakness
sustain us with your true and living bread,
Jesus Christ our Lord;
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings

1st Reading: 2 Samuel 11.26-12.13a

OT p. 266

Today's reading is the sequel to the tale of David's predatory sexual behaviour towards Bathsheba and the murder of her husband, Uriah. This week is 'Judgement Day,' when God sends the prophet Nathan to David who cleverly confronts David with his deceit and hubris. Nathan shows David that he must apply his ethics to his own behaviour. David's confession of sin ends his illusion of power and secrecy, but this mitigates only some of the tragic consequences which will flow from his actions.

Psalm: Psalm 51.1-12

APBA p 274

This psalm of lament takes up the sentiment of David's confession, 'I have sinned against the Lord' (2 Sam 12:13a). It is sometimes called the 'Miserere' and is well-known through Gregorio Allegri's (1582–1652) famous setting to music. Because the psalmist can do nothing to change the circumstances caused by sin, God's help is sought, for the one against whom they have sinned is none other than God (v. 4). So it is from God the psalmist seeks mercy and forgiveness.

2nd Reading: Ephesians 4.1–16

NT p. 179

At this point in the letter, the mood changes from one of exultation in the blessings of salvation to exhortation about living the Christian life in all its fullness. To do this, we have the gift of the Spirit to bring unity to the church and the power to equip all members of the Church for their common ministry in the Body of Christ. Love not only embraces us; it also empowers and equips us for ministry to others.

Gospel: John 6.24–35

NT p. 91

Last week, Jesus miraculously fed five thousand people. For the author of John's Gospel, miracles mean much more than just seeing them happen and benefitting from them. These verses, then, are an 'in-depth' study of Jesus as the 'bread of life,' which will continue over the next few weeks. This 'bread' is the offer from God, of a relationship of love and acceptance, the source of life, eternal life. Belief is involved, inasmuch as we need to believe that Jesus really does play that role. Faith is then acting on that belief in trust and becoming part of God's life in the world.

Music

Processional: 189 Alleluia! Sing to Jesus Gradual: Break thou the bread of life (words p. 5)
Offertory: 5 God is love: let heaven adore him
Communion: 278 O the love of my Lord
Post Communion:377 For the healing of the nations

Music Setting: Chris Chataway.

Organist: Shirley Gale

Break thou the bread of life (A&M 378)

1. Break thou the bread of life,
dear Lord, to me,
as thou didst break the loaves
beside the sea:
beyond the sacred page
I seek thee, Lord,
my spirit pants for thee,
O living Word!
2. Thou art the bread of life,
O Lord, to me,
thy holy word the truth
that saveth me.
Give me to eat and live
with thee above;
teach me to love thy truth,
for thou art love.
3. O send thy Spirit, Lord,
now unto me,
that he may touch my eyes,
and make me see:
show me the truth concealed
within thy word,
and in thy book revealed
I see thee, Lord.
4. Bless thou the truth, dear Lord,
to me, to me,
as thou didst bless the bread
by Galilee:
then shall all bondage cease,
all fetters fall,
and I shall find my peace,
my all in all!

vv 1, 4 Mary Artemisia Lathbury (1841-1913) vv 2, 3 Alexander Groves (1842-1909)

News from the Parish Council

Parish Council has continued its important work in the parish over the past few months. Here is a summary of some of the more topical issues:

The first of our revamped “Market Days” was held last month. Parish Council was pleased to support the efforts of Allan Edgar, who has been largely responsible for liaising with the new sellers and updating our branding of this event. More help for Allan in this venture would be greatly appreciated.

The Parish Representatives to the St. Andrew’s School Board for the period 2019-2021 (inclusive) have been ratified by Parish Council. Angus Netting and Kristian Downing will fill these roles again, and we are grateful to them for their work in this important relationship.

The paving around the tree in the Parish Centre Forecourt has been removed, as it was being lifted by the tree roots, and was a health and safety issue. This will also allow the tree to be more healthy, as its roots are no longer being encumbered by the paving.

The Bell Tower project has reached its next stage, with a Development Application being submitted to Walkerville Council. The Council have sought initial approval from the State Heritage Department, prior to considering it themselves.

Thank-you...

It was lovely to receive the certificate of appreciation from Anglicare, in recognition of the generosity of the parish community in supporting the Anglicare Winter Appeal. The volunteer who came to pick up the donations said that he had never had to make three trips before in order to drop everything off!!

Thanks again to Malcolm Allen for his energy and enthusiasm, and to all who assisted and donated.
