Parish Prayer

God our Father, you have made us members of Christ and of his Church in this parish.

May our worship be the offering of our hearts and lives to you.

Help us to reach out in welcome to newcomers and visitors,

to encourage and care for each other

in friendship and fellowship,

and to grow in grace and in love;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Today's Services

8.00am Holy Communion

9.30am Sung Eucharist

Preacher & Celebrant: The Rev'd Helen Gibson-White

A special welcome to all who are worshipping with us for the first time or visiting us today. We especially welcome those visiting us from other areas.

Please join us for a cup of tea or coffee after the service.

Sentence of the Day:

Who shall stand in the Lord's holy place? Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who do not lift up their hands to what is false.

Psalm 24: 3-4

Prayer of the Day

Eternal God,

Open our eyes to see your hand at work
in the splendour of creation and in the beauty of human life.

Help us to cherish the gifts that surround us,
to share our blessings with our sisters and brothers,
and to experience the joy of life in your presence;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,

who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings

First Reading: 2 Samuel 6.1-5, 12b-19

OT p. 262

David has now cemented his unifying kingship over both the northern and southern kingdoms. His finishing touch to the newly established capital Jerusalem is to bring to it the Ark of the Covenant with pomp and ceremony. This completes the journey, begun with the Exodus out of Egypt and continued through the wilderness, where the people have relied on God's protection and sustenance. The Ark is the symbol of God's presence.

Psalm 24 (said)

APBA p. 244

This psalm may have been used for a festival, dedication ceremony, or even a re-enactment of the entry of the Lord into his temple. A superscription says it is connected with David, so is a natural link to the entry of the Ark of the Covenant into Jerusalem as told in the first reading.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1.1-14

NT p. 178

For the next seven weeks, this series of New Testament readings will be from Paul's letter to the Christians in Ephesus. Possibly used by the early Church to prepare new converts for baptism at Pentecost, these opening verses begin with a lofty doxology (praise) concerning God the Father and what God has done in Christ.

Gospel: Mark 6.14-29

NT p. 38

The gruesome story of the death of John the Baptist, displays the machinations of power and the structures of injustice which faced those who lived in the time of Jesus and when Mark wrote his Gospel. It is a story of the exploitation of women, citizens and slaves and of the silencing of John the Baptist's cry for justice. It appears here in Mark's narrative to help us, the reader, connect with what is to come: the cross of Christ.

Music

Processional: 8 Great is thy faithfulness
Gradual: God has spoken (words p.5)
Offertory: Christ be the Lord (words p.6)
Communion: 325 Father hear the prayer we offer
Post Communion:303 Lord of all hopefulness

Music Setting: Chris Chataway.

Organist: Coby Mellor

God has spoken (A&M 379)

1. God has spoken – by his prophets,
spoken his unchanging word;
each from age to age proclaiming
God the one, the righteous Lord;
In the world's despair and turmoil
one firm anchor holds us fast:
God eternal reigns for ever,
God the first, and God the last.
2. God has spoken – by Christ Jesus,
Christ, the everlasting Son;
brightness of the Father's glory,
with the Father, ever one:
spoken by the word incarnate,
Life, before all time began,
Light of Light, to earth descending,
God, revealed as Son of Man.
3. God is speaking – by his Spirit,
speaking to our hearts again;
in the ageless Word declaring
God's own message, now as then.
Through the rise and fall of nations
one sure faith is holding fast:
God abides, his word unchanging,
God the first, and God the last.

Christ be the Lord (A&M 607)

1. Christ be the Lord of all our days,
the swiftly passing years:
Lord of our unremembered birth,
heirs to the brightness of the earth;
Lord of our griefs and fears.
2. Christ be the source of all our deeds,
the life our living shares;
the fount which flows from worlds above
to never-failing springs of love;
the ground of all our prayers.
3. Christ be the goal of all our hopes
the end to whom we come;
guide of each pilgrim Christian soul
which seeks, as compass seeks the pole,
our many-mansioned home.
4. Christ be the vision of our lives,
of all we think and are;
to shine upon our spirit's sight
as light of everlasting light,
the bright and morning star.

For your Prayers this week

The Nations and People of the Earth:

Those who have died and those suffering in the aftermath of the flooding and landslides in Western Japan.

We give thanks for the safe recovery of the young people stranded in the Thailand cave complex, for the skilled divers and rescue workers involved, and pray for Navy SEAL Saman Gunan, who gave his life in the operation.

The people and children of South Sudan, suffering in the continuing civil war.

The Church and its Mission:

The Anglican Church of Papua New Guinea, Archbishop Allan Migi, his clergy and people.

The Primate and Archbishop of Melbourne, Philip Freier.

The Archdeaconry of Sturt, the Ven. Andrew Minton, and his colleagues.

St George's Anglican College in Jerusalem, a place of education, pilgrimage, hospitality and reconciliation in the land of the Holy One.

At St Andrew's we pray for:

Our Rector, the Rev'd Sam Goodes and his family.

The Parish Council, meeting on Wednesday.

Members of the Bible Study and Faith & Fellowship groups, meeting through the week.

Ourselves and our Community:

Those who work to safeguard Australia's oceans and borders.

All who volunteer in coastal Rescue Squadrons.

All naval, merchant and recreational seafarers.

All whose work takes them away from shore for long periods of time.

Special Prayer Request:

Meg Robertson, John O'Brien, Marianne Cannon, Judy Brancis, Mariela, Rhiannon Henry-Edwards, Grant Dalwood, Lorna.

The Departed

Thanksgiving for those who have gone before us in faith:

Past Rectors and congregations of St Andrew's Church.

Notices

At St Andrew's

- ❖ WELCOME: We welcome Coby Mellor who is our organist this morning at 9.30am. Coby is an assistant organist at St Peter's Cathedral. We thank him for his playing today.
- ❖ ABM PROVINCIAL DINNER 2018: Friday 27 July 2018, 6.30 for 7.00 pm at St Peter's Anglican Church, Torrens Square, Glenelg. Cost $30.00 ($25.00 Concession). RSVP July 23 to Margaret 8244 7273. See notice at back of Church for details.
- ❖ PATRONAL FESTIVAL: St Andrew's Day celebration is on Sunday December 2nd. There will be two stalls at lunch time – a Bric-a-brac (small items only) and a combined craft/produce stall. Craft items of all kinds – art work, wood work, sewing, knitting etc. – things we can make during this cold, wet weather!! Produce will include cakes, biscuits, jams vegetables, plants etc. Please contact Rosalie Harding, Joan Beer, Jennie Coleman or Denise Miller for further “info”.
- ❖ SEEKING IDEAS FOR FUNDRAISING: – Do you like a Quiz Night? Enjoy browsing a trading table? What about singing along at a hymn-fest, or enjoying a fashion show? Or perhaps you have some other great ideas on how to help the parish raise some extra money? Parish Council would love to hear about them. Carolyn Wigg is the contact person and looks forward to speaking with you.
- ❖ MID-WEEK EUCHARIST: An opportunity to join in community and fellowship with a new mid-week Eucharist. To be held regularly on the 4th Thursday of the month, at 11.30am, followed by a BYO lunch. Next meeting July 26th. All welcome...
- ❖ NEWCOMERS AND VISITORS: If you would like to know more about St Andrew's, please fill out a yellow “Welcome Form” on the back table. If you give it to a Sidesperson or to the clergy, we shall be in touch with you very soon.
