Today's Services

8.00am Holy Communion

9.30am Sung Eucharist

with St Andrew's School Staff & Board

Preacher:	8am & 9.30am -	The Rev'd Sam Goodes
Celebrant:	8am -	The Rev'd Sam Goodes
	9.30am -	The Rev'd Rachel Chapman

A special welcome to all who are worshipping with us for the first time or visiting us today. We especially welcome Members of St Andrew's School Staff & Board, particularly the School Principal, Mrs Deb Dalwood. Please join us for a cup of tea/coffee after the 9.30am service.

Before the Service begins please read the following:

In the Church's calendar, this is a special time. Lent is the season of 40 days before Easter beginning on Ash Wednesday (March 6th). It arose out of preparing new Christians for baptism on Easter Day. It is a time of preparation and reflection and calls every member of the Church to give some time to prayer, study of the Bible and greater generosity to those in need. The aim is to give our relationship with God some greater priority, so we create an opportunity for spiritual growth. Our worship, therefore, is a little more sombre and reflective, in contrast to the joy and praise of Easter.

GATHERING IN GOD'S NAME

Hymn (please stand)

- 1. All my hope on God is founded;
he doth still my trust renew.
Me through change and chance he guideth,
only good and only true.
God unknown, he alone
calls my heart to be his own.

2. Pride of man and earthly glory,
sword and crown betray his trust;
what with care and toil he buildeth,
tower and temple, fall to dust.
But God's power hour by hour
is my temple and my tower.

3. God's great goodness aye endureth,
deep his wisdom, passing thought;
splendour, light and life attend him,
beauty springeth out of naught.
Evermore, from his store
new-born worlds rise and adore.

4. Daily doth the almighty giver
bounteous gifts on us bestow;
his desire our soul delighteth
pleasure leads us where we go.
Love doth stand at his hand;
joy doth wait on his command.

5. Still from earth to God eternal sacrifice of praise be done,
high above all praises praising
for the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call one and all:
ye who follow shall not fall.

Greeting & Welcome

Bless the Lord who forgives all our sin;
Whose mercy endures for ever.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.
And also with you.

Sentence of the Day:

Our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:20

Let us pray.

Almighty God
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit,
that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Deacon says

Compassion and forgiveness belong to the Lord our God, though we have rebelled and wandered far off.

Kyrie: (sung)

Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy,
Christ have mercy, Christ have mercy, Christ have mercy,
Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy.

Let us then ask for mercy, confessing our sins in penitence and faith.

Merciful God,
our maker and our judge,
we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
and in what we have failed to do:
we have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;
we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.
Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God,
who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith:
pardon you and set you free from all your sins,
strengthen you in all goodness
and keep you in eternal life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Children's Time begins (in the Parish Centre)

Prayer of the Day
(Let us pray)

God of our ancestors,
whose chosen servant Abraham was given faith to obey your call and go out into the unknown:
endow your Church with such faith
that we may follow you with courage;
for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

School Prayer

Almighty God,
may your Holy Spirit bless St. Andrew's School.
Give to the students guidance and support.
to the staff, strength and patience.
to the parents, a sense of enjoyment and participation.
to the Board, wisdom and purpose.
May your love influence all we do,
so that others, through this school, learn of your goodness
in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

THE MINISTRY OF THE WORD

Readings

1st Reading: Genesis 15:1-12,17-18 OT p. 11

In the ancient Middle East, when two tribes made a treaty, they used the ritual described in today's reading. Only in this instance, one of the treaty parties is God, and the other, Abram (who later is called Abraham), doesn't have a tribe. So God does all the work in this agreement with Abram and his descendants; a covenant that Judaism, and Christianity, still have in common.

After the reading:

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

Psalm: Psalm 27.1-8 (said together)

This psalm is about trust in God, trust that arises out of a deep communion with God, the kind of trust Abraham had, the kind of trust we express in our worship today.

- 1. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear?:
the Lord is the stronghold of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?
- 2. When the wicked, even my enemies and my foes, come upon me to devour me: they shall stumble and fall.
- 3. If an army encamp against me, my heart shall not be afraid:
and if war should rise against me, yet will I trust.
- 4. One thing I have asked from the Lord, which I will require:
that I may dwell in the house of the Lord
all the days of my life,
- 5. To see the fair beauty of the Lord:
and to seek his will in his temple.
- 6. For he will hide me under his shelter in the day of trouble:
and conceal me in the shadow of his tent
and set me high upon a rock.
- 7. And now he will lift up my head:
above my enemies round about me.
- 8. And I will offer sacrifices in his sanctuary with exultation:
I will sing, I will sing praises to the Lord.

2nd Reading: Philippians 3.17-4.1 (please sit) NT p. 184

Paul urges his readers to become mature and live as God wants them to live, as citizens of heaven, through the power of what Christ has done on the cross and because of what Christ will do at the end of all things.

After the reading:

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

Hymn (please stand)‘

- 1. Forgive us when our deeds ignore your righteous rule of all the earth,
when our decisions harm the poor,
denying their eternal worth.
- 2. Forgive us when we turn aside from what is honest, true and fair, when dreams of pleasure, wealth and pride supplant your clear commands to care.
- 3. Forgive us, Lord, our endless greed for what was never truly ours,
when, driven more by want than need,
we harness this world’s brutal powers.
- 4. Forgive us that we change the rules by which the game of life is played,
and never learn to wield the tools which could see joy and hope remade.
- 5. Forgive us God! Our lives betray our shallow, vague response to grace;
so help us walk your holy way,
to make your world a better place.

Gospel: Luke 13:1-9

NT p. 70

Jesus rejects the practice of ‘blaming the victim’ to explain suffering. To those who are quick to move to judgement, he calls for a change of heart that allows a greater understanding of God to grow, like the gardener gives time for the fig tree to bear fruit.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke, chapter 13 beginning at the first verse.

After the reading:

For the gospel of the Lord,

Sermon (please sit)

Affirmation of faith (introduced by the Deacon)

Let us together affirm the faith of the Church.

We believe in one God,
who made and loves all that is.

We believe in Jesus Christ,
God's only Son, our Lord,
who was born, lived, died and rose again,
and is coming to call all to account.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
who calls, equips and sends out God's people,
and brings all things to their true end.

This is our faith, the faith of the Church:

We believe in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Prayers of the People (please sit or kneel). Introduced by the Deacon

We pray to the Lord for courage to give up other things and to give ourselves to him this Lent. Let us pray for the world and for the Church.

Response after each petition

Lord, hear us,

Lord, hear our prayer.

The prayers conclude

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.

Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Greeting of Peace (please stand)

We are the body of Christ.

His Spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Hymn (please stand)

- 1. Christ be the Lord of all our days,
the swiftly passing years;
Lord of our unremembered birth,
heirs to the brightness of the earth;
Lord of our griefs and fears.
- 2. Christ be the source of all our deeds,
the life our living shares;
the fount which flows from worlds above
to never-failing springs of love;
the ground of all our prayers.
- 3. Christ be the goal of all our hopes the end to whom we come;
guide of each pilgrim Christian soul
which seeks, as compass seeks the pole,
our many-mansioned home.
- 4. Christ be the vision of our lives,
of all we think and are;
to shine upon our spirit's sight
as light of everlasting light,
the bright and morning star.

Prayer over the gifts

God, we give you but your own from our plenty and our need. Turn our gratitude into sharing, our attitude into loving. May these gifts sustain, strengthen, and surprise this church in ministry and mission. Accept and use our offerings for your glory and for the service of your kingdom.

Blessed be God for ever.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you

And also with you

Lift up your hearts

We lift them to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

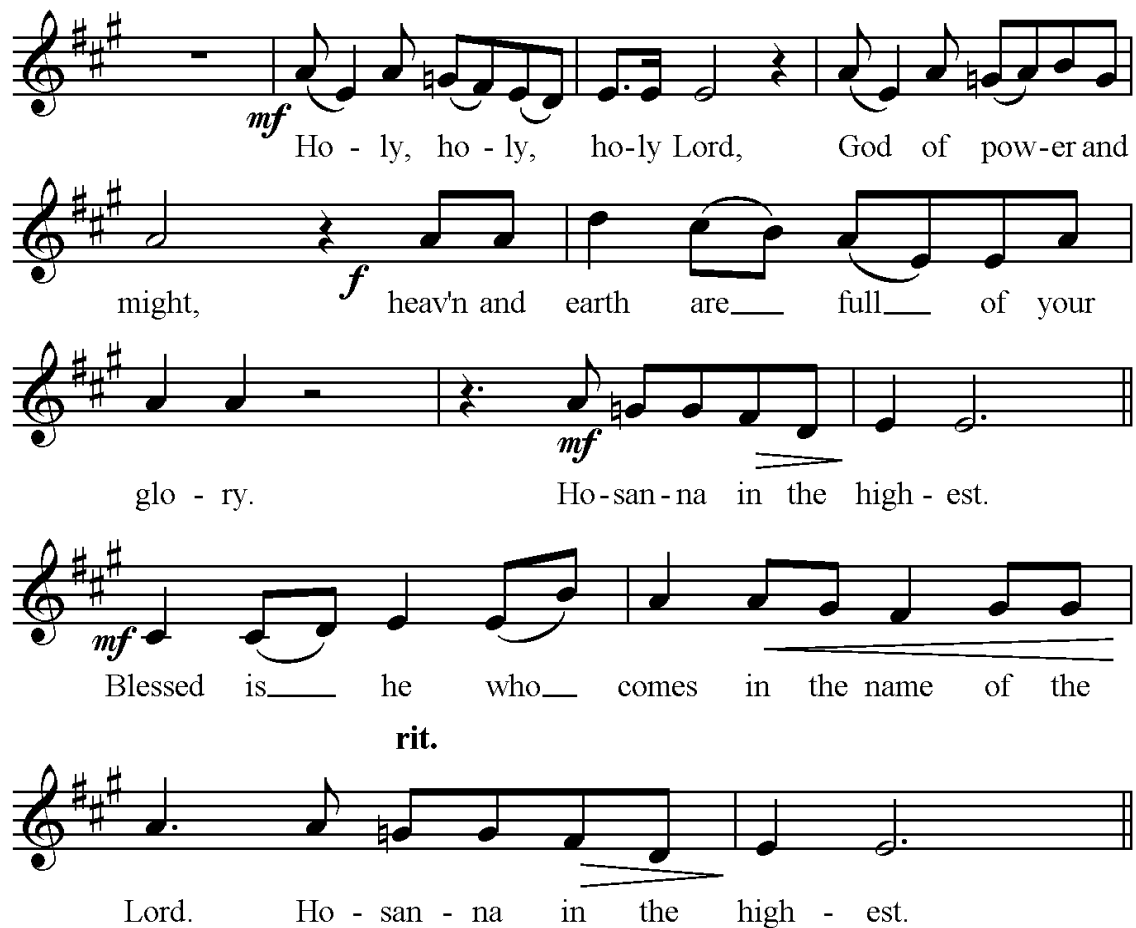

It is right to give our thanks and praise

All glory and honour, be yours now and always, mighty Creator, everliving God.

We give you thanks and praise for your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ, who by the power of your Spirit was born of Mary and lived as one of us.

He was tempted in every way as we are, yet he did not sin. By his death on the cross and rising to new life,
he offered the one true sacrifice for sin
and obtained an eternal deliverance for his people.
By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil,
and to walk in the way of his love.

Therefore with angels and archangels,
and with all the company of heaven,
we proclaim your great and glorious name,
for ever praising you and singing:

mf Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, f heav'n and earth are full of your mf glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
mf Blessed is he who comes in the name of the rit.
 Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Merciful God, we thank you for these gifts of your creation,
 this bread and wine,
 and we pray that by your Word and Holy Spirit,
 we who eat and drink them
 may be partakers of Christ's body and blood.
 On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread;
 and when he had given you thanks
 he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying,
 'Take, eat. This is my body given for you.
 Do this in remembrance of me.'
 After supper, he took the cup,
 and again giving thanks
 he gave it to his disciples, saying,
 'Drink from this, all of you.
 This is my blood of the new covenant shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
 Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

Therefore we do as our Saviour has commanded:
 proclaiming his offering of himself
 made once for all upon the cross,
 his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension,
 and looking for his coming again,
 we celebrate, with this bread and this cup,
 his one perfect and sufficient sacrifice
 for the sins of the whole world.

The Deacon says

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is ri- sen. Christ will come a - gain.

Renew us by your Holy Spirit unite us in the body of your Son, and bring us with all your people
 into the joy of your eternal kingdom;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord,
 with whom, and in whom,
 in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
 we worship you, Father,
 in songs of never-ending praise:

Bless- ing and hon- our and glo- ry, glo- ry and pow- er are yours for ev- er and ev- er. A - men. A - men.

(Please kneel or sit)

As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are confident to pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory, are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and the Communion

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

We who are many are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

Agnus Dei (sung)

Je - sus, Lamb of God, have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, bear - er of our sins, have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, re - deem - er of the world: grant us your peace

Come let us take this holy sacrament of the body and blood of Christ in remembrance that he died for us, and feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

If you are visiting us today, you are welcome to receive the sacrament of Holy Communion, as long as you are baptised and able to receive it in your own Christian Tradition. If you do not receive communion, you are welcome to come forward and receive a blessing. Please keep your hands by your side so we know this is what you want.

Hymn during Communion

- 1. I come with joy, a child of God,
forgiven, loved and free,
the life of Jesus to recall,
in love laid down for me.

- 2. I come with Christians far and near to find, as all are fed,
the new community of love
in Christ's communion bread.

- 3. As Christ breaks bread and bids us share,
each proud division ends.
The love that made us makes us one,
and strangers now are friends.

- 4. The Spirit of the risen Christ, unseen, but ever near,
is in such friendship better known:
alive among us here.

- 5. Together met, together bound by all that God has done,
we'll go with joy, to give the world
the love that makes us one.

THE SENDING OUT OF GOD'S PEOPLE

Post Communion Prayer

Compassionate and loving God,
through your Son Jesus Christ you have fed us
and have reconciled your people to yourself.
Following his example of fasting and prayer,
may we obey you with willing hearts
and serve one another in holy love.

Father,
we offer ourselves to you
as a living sacrifice
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit
to live and work to your praise and glory.

Notices

Hymn (please stand)

- 1. There's a wideness in God's mercy
like the wideness of the sea;
there's a kindness in his justice
which is more than liberty.
- 2. There is no place where earth's sorrows are more felt than in heaven;
there is no place where earth's failings
have such kindly judgment given.
- 3. For the love of God is broader than the measure of man's mind;
and the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.

4. But we make his love too narrow
by false limits of our own;
and we magnify his strictness
with a zeal he will not own.

5. There is plentiful redemption
in the blood that has been shed;
there is joy for all the members
in the sorrows of the head.

6. There is grace enough for thousands of new worlds as great as this;
there is room for fresh creations
in that upper home of bliss.

7. If our love were but more simple
we should take him at his word;
and our life would be illumined
for the goodness of the Lord.

F.W. Faber (1814–63)

Blessing & Dismissal

Christ our Saviour draw you to himself, that you may find in him crucified
a sure ground for faith, a firm support for hope,
and the assurance of sin forgiven and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

The Deacon says

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord:
In the name of Christ. Amen
