Sentence of the Day

To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honour and glory and might for ever and ever.

Revelation 5.13

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God,
through your only Son you overcame death
and opened to us the gate of everlasting life:
grant that we who celebrate our Lord's resurrection,
may, through the renewing power of your Spirit,
rise from the death of sin to the life of righteousness;
Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings

1st Reading: Acts 9.1-6

NT p. 117

Although usually referred to as Paul's conversion, there is a good case for naming it Paul's Call. The road to Damascus changed his perspective, from blindness to seeing clearly the truth about the Risen Christ. This story is repeated twice more in Acts and alluded to by Paul himself in 1 Corinthians and Galatians, so important was this story to the early church and to Paul's own mission.

Psalm: Psalm 30

This Psalm praises God for delivering the psalmist from 'the Pit' a metaphor for death. This psalm is a superb accompaniment to the Gospel reading from John. After the disciple's deep despair over Jesus' death, and on the apparent end of all for which he stood, suddenly there comes deliverance in the form of the risen Lord.

James Turl (1802-1882)

1. I will exalt you O Lord * for you have drawn me | up · from the | depths:
and have not suffered my | foes to | triumph | over me.
2. O Lord my | God I | cried to you:
and | you have | made me | whole.
3. You brought me back O Lord from the | land of | silence:
you saved my life from among | those that · go | down · to the | Pit.
4. Sing praises to the Lord all | you his | faithful ones:
and give | thanks · to his | holy | name.
5. For if in his anger is havoc * in his good | favour · is | life:
heaviness may endure for a night * but | joy comes | in the | morning.
6. In my prosperity I said * 'I shall | never · be | moved:
your goodness O Lord has | set me · on so | firm a | hill.'
7. Then you | hid your | face from me:
and | I was | greatly · dis | mayed.
8. I cried to | you O | God:
and made my petition | humbly | to my | Lord.

9. 'What profit is there in my blood * if I go | down ·to the | Pit:
can the dust give you thanks | or de | clare your | faithfulness?
10. 'Hear O | Lord ·and be | merciful:
O | Lord | be my | helper.'
11. You have turned my lamentation | into | dancing:
you have put off my sackcloth and | girded | me with | joy,
12. That my heart may sing your praise and | never ·be | silent:
O Lord my God * I will | give you | thanks for | ever.

2nd Reading: Revelation 5.6-14

NT p. 230

The imagery of this passage is the imagery of an Ancient Eastern court transported into the heavenly realm. The power and glory of the Risen Christ are more important than the persecuting power of the Roman Emperor. God is the true power to which all earthly power is subject.

Gospel: John 21.1-19

NT p. 108

Whenever the risen Jesus appears to the disciples in John's Gospel, it usually leads to someone being commissioned. Today's story not only commissions the apostles in their mission to look to Jesus to help bring in the harvest of souls, but also redeems Peter; the three questions 'Do you love me?' cancelling Peter's three denials before the crucifixion of Jesus.

Thou art the Christ (A&M 321)

1. Thou art the Christ, O Lord,
the Son of God most high:
for ever be adored
that name in earth and sky,
in which, though mortal strength
may fail,
the saints of God at last prevail.
2. O surely he was blest
with blessedness unpriced,
who, taught of God, confessed
the Godhead in the Christ;
for of thy church, Lord, thou didst
own
thy saint a true foundation-stone.
3. Thrice fallen, thrice restored,
the bitter lesson learnt,
that heart for thee, O Lord,
with triple ardour burnt.
The cross he took he laid not down
until he grasped the martyr's
crown.
4. O bright triumphant faith,
O courage void of fears,
O love most strong in death,
O penitential tears!
By these, Lord, keep us lest we
fall,
and make us go where thou shalt
call.

William Walsham How (1823-67)

I know that my Redeemer lives (TiS 376)

1. I know that my Redeemer lives -
what joy the blest assurance
gives!
He lives, he lives who once was
dead;
he lives, my everlasting Head.
2. He lives, to bless me with his love:
he lives, to plead for me above;
he lives my hungry soul to feed;
he lives to help in time of need.
3. He lives, and grants me daily
breath;
he lives, and I shall conquer
death;
he lives, my mansion to prepare;
he lives, to lead me safely there.
4. He lives, all glory to his name;
he lives, my Saviour, still the
same;
what joy the blest assurance
gives,
I know that my Redeemer lives!

Samuel Medley (1738-99)

From the Archbishop

Following consultation in the Diocese, a process of discernment and with the concurrence of the Diocesan Council I am very pleased to be able to announce the appointment of the Venerable Denise Ferguson as an assistant bishop in the Diocese of Adelaide.

Denise is at present the Rector of East Redland Anglican Parish and Archdeacon of Moreton in the Diocese of Brisbane. Denise is married to Mark and they have an adult daughter. Denise is originally from New Zealand where she ministered in the Diocese of Waikato and Taranaki and the Diocese of Wellington. Denise is passionate about the mission of God, is an experienced church leader at both the local and Diocesan levels and has a real heart for pastoral ministry. I look forward very much to Denise joining us as we continue to work towards Vision 2022.

Denise will be ordained a bishop in the church of God at St Peter's Cathedral on Sunday July 21 with the service beginning at 5pm.

Please pray for Denise and Mark as they begin to prepare for the transition from Brisbane to Adelaide.

In Christ,
+Geoff
