Parish Prayer

God our Father, you have made us members of Christ and of his Church in this parish.

May our worship be the offering of our hearts and lives to you.

Help us to reach out in welcome to newcomers and visitors, to encourage and care for each other in friendship and fellowship, and to grow in grace and in love;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Today's Services

8.00am Holy Communion

9.30am Sung Eucharist

Preacher & Celebrant: The Rev'd Sam Goodes

A special welcome to all who are worshipping with us for the first time or visiting us today. We especially welcome those visiting us from other places. Please join us for a cup of tea or coffee after the 9.30am service.

Sentence of the Day:

'I am the resurrection and the life,' says the Lord. 'Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.'

John 11.25-26

Prayer of the Day

God of all the living,
in the resurrection of Christ Jesus
you have given us the promise of life which death itself cannot destroy:
in the strength of this unshakeable promise,
give us a new heart to live, even now, as your new creation.
We ask this through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings

1st Reading: Haggai 1.15b-2.9

OT p. 801

Haggai prophesies to a people newly returned to Israel, around 520 BCE, after the Persians had sent them home following their half century exile in Babylon. In the face of difficulty, Haggai addresses the dispirited people by reminding them of God's rescue in former times, and of the future glory that will come. The Temple was the embodiment of God's presence with them; its rebuilding will accompany the rebuilding of their faith.

Psalm 145:1-5, 17-21

Psalm 145 is an acrostic hymn of praise structured around the Hebrew alphabet. The word 'all' occurs seventeen times in this psalm, pointing to the comprehensive nature of the praise of God and the ones who give it. Verse 4 describes what Haggai was doing, helping pass on the faith and prayers to the next generation.

Thomas Norris (1741-1790)

1. I will exalt you O | God my | king:
I will bless your | name for | ever · and | ever.
2. Every | day will · I | bless you:
and praise your | name for | ever · and | ever.
3. Great is the Lord * and wonderfully worthy | to be | praised:
his greatness | is past | searching | out.
4. One generation shall praise your works | to an | other:
and de|clare your | mighty | acts

2nd Part:

5. As for me * I will be talking of the glorious splendour | of your
| majesty:
I will tell the story | of your | marvel · lous | works.
17. The Lord is just in | all his | ways:
and | faithful · in | all his | dealings.
18. The Lord is near to all who | call up | on him:
to all who | call up | on him · in | truth.
19. He will fulfil the desire of | those that | fear him:
he will | hear their | cry and | save them.
20. The Lord preserves all | those that | love him:
but the wicked | he will | utterly · de|stroy.

2nd Part:

21. My mouth shall speak the praises | of the | Lord:
and let all flesh bless his holy | name for | ever · and | ever.

2nd Reading: 2 Thessalonians 2.1-5, 13-17

NT p. 191

These words of encouragement were written to a community spooked by thinking that their travail meant Christ was about to return. The writer recalls the tradition that the anti-Christ would come first and highlights that it is not what is to come that governs their faith but the past. It is the knowledge of their election through faith in Christ that will help them stand firm when events cause them to fear.

Gospel: Luke 20.27-40

NT p. 78

Unlike previous arguments about how to interpret the Torah (Law of Moses), this one is between Jesus and the Sadducees who are defined by what they deny; they are anti-resurrection. Unlike the Pharisees, they took only the Law as authoritative, not the writings of the psalms or prophets which argue for resurrection. Jesus dismisses the complexities of levirate marriage as irrelevant, for in the age to come when death is no more, marriage is unnecessary and women won't be passed along as property.

Music

Processional:	16	O God, our help in ages past
Gradual:		I know that my Redeemer lives (words p. 6)
Offertory:	362	Christ is the world's light
Communion:	337	Make me a channel of your peace
Post Communion:	358	Forth in the peace of Christ we go

Music Setting: Chris Chataway.

Organist: Ian Gray

I know that my Redeemer lives (TiS 376)

1. I know that my Redeemer lives –
what joy the blest assurance gives!
He lives, he lives who once was dead;
he lives, my everlasting Head.
2. He lives, to bless me with his love:
he lives, to plead for me above;
he lives my hungry soul to feed;
he lives to help in time of need.
3. He lives, and grants me daily breath;
he lives, and I shall conquer death;
he lives, my mansion to prepare;
he lives, to lead me safely there.
4. He lives, all glory to his name;
he lives, my Saviour, still the same;
what joy the blest assurance gives,
I know that my Redeemer lives!

Samuel Medley (1738-99)

For your Prayers this week

The Nations and People of the Earth:

Lord God, help us this Sunday to remember the sacrifice of those caught up in war, and the generations of men, women and children who have died in the cause of liberty and peace. Help us to remember those who still bear the physical and mental scars and disabilities of their service. Help us to remember all those who waited in vain for the return of a loved one. Help us to remember the mateship, agony, courage and compassion of war service, but save us from ever glorifying the horror and tragedy of war.

Lord God, help us to remember.

The Church and its Mission:

The Lusitanian Church, Bp Jorge Cabral, his clergy and people.

The Parish of Christ Church, North Adelaide: Keith Brice, Rector, and Adrian Stephens, Joan Claring-Bould, Assistant Priests.

Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East.

At St Andrew's we pray for:

Members of the Prayer Chain, Girls' Night Out and Fellowship Groups, meeting through the week.

Residents, staff and helpers at Walkerville Aged Care.

That we may strive to be worthy of that eternal life that God offers us through Jesus.

Ourselves and our Community:

Those elected to serve on local Councils especially here in Walkerville.

Special Prayer Request:

Meg Robertson, John O'Brien, Marianne Cannon, Judy Brancis, Mariela, Rhiannon Henry-Edwards, Daniela Goncalves, Grant Dalwood, Bishop David McCall.

The Departed

Thanksgiving for those who have gone before us in faith:

Leo of Rome, bishop and teacher (d. 461) November 10

Martin, bishop of Tours (d. c 387)) November 11

Charles Simeon, evangelist (d. 1836) November 12

Margaret of Scotland, queen, helper of the poor (d. 1093) November 16

Synod Summary

The first session of the 44th Triennial Synod of the Anglican Diocese of Adelaide began with the Synod Eucharist on Friday 18th October. The Archbishop presided and preached. Following Morning Prayer on Saturday, the Archbishop delivered his Pastoral Address. In a wide-ranging speech, he thanked and farewelled Amanda Harfield, as Diocesan Registrar, and formally welcomed Bishops Denise Ferguson and Greg Thompson to positions within the Diocese. He reminded us of the importance of taking time with regard to Mission Action Plans, believing that the process is in some ways more important than the outcome. To rush the process may mean missing something deep and important.

The Archbishop reflected on the terrible cost of domestic violence in the community and reminded us that the church is a place not immune to this issue. There will be training offered in 2020 to assist parish communities in becoming more aware of it, and of ways to counter it. We were reminded, too, that unity has been an issue for the church over the years, and our current presenting topics, especially human sexuality, are very sensitive. Using Jesus' parable of the wheat and the weeds, he cautioned against rushing to judgment, one way or another, lest the good wheat be pulled out with the "bad" weeds.

The business of Synod was largely straightforward. Unlike previous years, there was little to consider in terms of legislation. There were some motions asking the Diocese to make comment on issues of social justice, acknowledge the Centenary of BCA, as well as a long motion around religious freedom. The motions which garnered the most debate and division were those around human sexuality. Although the Synod was in agreement on the motion which apologised to the LGBTIQ+ community for times when they have been made unwelcome in the church, the motion which called us to action was hotly contested. Ultimately, the motion asking leadership to explore a form of liturgical and pastoral recognition of LGBTIQ+ persons was not put to the vote. The other contentious motion claimed that there was a crisis of collegiality in the Diocese, as a result of disagreement over things which are essential to salvation. This motion was heavily amended and resulted in a statement which noted disagreement over some theological issues and sought a forum whereby such things could be safely discussed. This was passed with a strong majority.

The motion to consider selling Bishop's Court was surprisingly non-controversial. There was almost a sense of resignation that the time had come, and the cost of upkeep of such a property was no longer viable. Synod agreed, almost unanimously, to delegate to Diocesan Council the authority to "do all things necessary for the sale of Bishop's Court at a price appropriate to prevailing market conditions."

The forum during Synod on reconciliation introduced us to a new term – "Makarrata". This is a Yolngu word meaning "coming together after a crisis", and reflects better than reconciliation the outcome of ongoing work, prayer, and discussions in this space.
