God our Father, you have made us members of Christ and of his Church in this parish.

May our worship be the offering of our hearts and lives to you.

Help us to reach out in welcome to newcomers and visitors, to encourage and care for each other in friendship and fellowship,

and to grow in grace and in love;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Today's Service

Preacher & Celebrant: The Rev'd Sam Goodes

On this last Sunday in the Christian liturgical year, we celebrate the Reign of Christ. The readings from the Bible concentrate on the anticipated triumph of God in and through the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

A special welcome to all who are worshipping with us for the first time or visiting us today, in particular those members of the Order of St. Lazarus of Jerusalem. We also welcome those visiting us from other places. Please join us for a cup of tea or coffee after the service.

The Order of Saint Lazarus had its origins in a leper hospital founded by Saint Basil outside the north wall of Jerusalem in the fourth century AD. During the Crusades, the Hospitaller Order of St Lazarus became the body responsible for knights who contracted leprosy. In turn, knights from the great chivalric orders of St John of Jerusalem, and the Temple and the Holy Sepulchre, having become members of the Hospitaller Order of St Lazarus as a consequence of disease, provided the military basis for protection. The Military and Hospitaller Order of St Lazarus of Jerusalem historically came into existence as a chivalric order in 1098CE.

Prior to the fall of Jerusalem, the Order had spread into Europe, founding hospitals, country houses and commanderies. The Green Cross, symbol of hospital services, became the insignia of the Order. The most important centre of the Order was France where, in 1158CE, King Louis VII recognised its commanders and ensured that the Order could continue its charitable works.

During the French Revolution, all royal and knightly Orders in France were suppressed their properties were confiscated. In 1931, the Knights of the Order were then recalled to the double mission of care for lepers and collaboration in the defence of the Faith. An unfortunate schism developed in 1969, resulting in a divided Order with two Obediences; the Australian Grand Priory follows the Paris Obedience.

The Order was brought to Australia in 1979. It now has Commanderies in all the states and in the ACT, which devote themselves to caring for the marginalised and less fortunate in our society.

Processional Hymn

- 1. Christ is the King! O friends rejoice;
brothers and sisters, with one voice
let the world know he is your choice.
*Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
- 2. O magnify the Lord and raise anthems of joy and holy praise for Christ's brave saints of ancient days.
*Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
- 3. They with a faith for ever new followed the king and round him drew thousands of faithful servants true.
*Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
- 4. O Christian women, Christian men, all the world over, seek again
the way disciples followed then.
*Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
- 5. Christ through all ages is the same:
place the same hope in his great name;
with the same faith his word proclaim.
*Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
- 6. Let love's unconquerable might your scattered companies unite in service to the Lord of light.
*Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
- 7. So shall God's will on earth be done,
new lamps be lit, new tasks begun,
and the whole Church at last be one.
*Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Greeting & Welcome

Blessed be God; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Blessed be God's Kingdom, now and forever.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Sentence of Scripture

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Lo, your King comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

Zechariah 9.9

Prayer of Preparation

(Let us Pray)

Almighty God,

to whom all hearts are open,

all desires known,

and from whom no secrets are hidden:

cleanse the thoughts of our hearts

by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,

and worthily magnify your holy name,

through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession & Absolution: (please sit or kneel)

Jesus says, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.'

So let us turn away from sin and turn to Christ, confessing our sin in penitence and faith.

The kingdom is yours,

but we turn away from your just rule:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

The power is yours,
but we trust in our own power and strength:
Christ, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.

The glory is yours,
but we fall short of the glory of God:
Lord, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Almighty God,
who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith: pardon
you and set you free from all your sin, strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in eternal life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please stand for the Hymn of Praise (Gloria) mf Glo-ry to God in the high est and peace to God's peo-ple on

Prayer of the Day

(Let us pray)

Eternal God, you exalted Jesus Christ to rule over all things, and have made us instruments of his kingdom:
 by your Spirit empower us to love the unloved,
 and to minister to all in need,
 then at last bring us to your eternal realm where we may be welcomed into your everlasting joy and may worship and adore you for ever;
 Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer of the Order of St. Lazarus (said by its members)

Lord Jesus Christ who has called us to serve in Australia as members of the Order of Saint Lazarus of Jerusalem, keep us united in your love and service.

Enable us to be faithful to the ideals of Christian chivalry.

Holy Spirit give us light and strength not to betray the duties of our vocation, that the care of lepers and all in need, the unity of Christians and the defence of the faith be our end and our constant care, for your honour and glory, who with the Father and the Son are one God. Amen.

First Reading: Jeremiah 23.1-6 (please sit)

OT p. 659

Read by The Hon. Gavin Fielding – Grand Prior

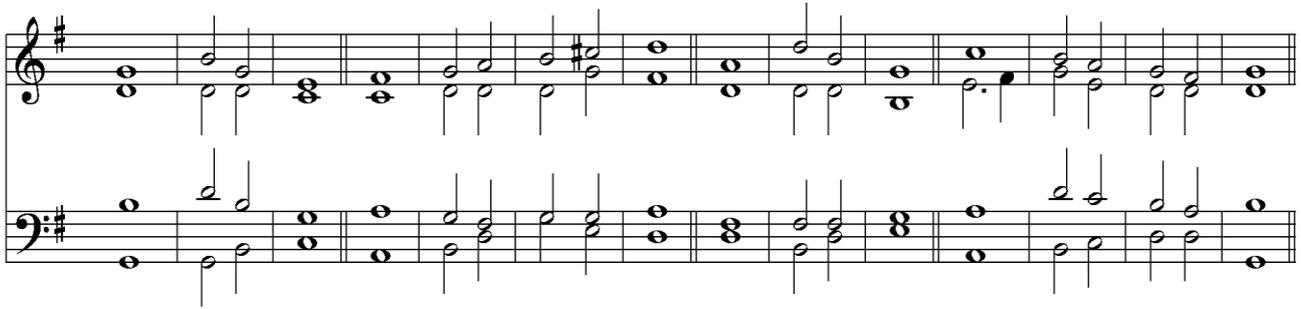

'Shepherd' was used as a metaphor for a country's king. After criticizing the king of Judah as a poor shepherd who did not care for the flock, the prophet declares a branch of David will become King, and God's people will be safe and secure. For Christians, the nature of Christ's reign is that of a shepherd who cares for the flock.

After the reading

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

Psalm – Song of Zechariah

This psalm inserted into Luke's account is one of three used in the first two chapters. Today's passage is known as the Song of Zechariah or The Benedictus. Zechariah was the father of John the Baptist who sings it as a thanksgiving on the birth of John. Like the passage from Jeremiah, it speaks of a Davidic saviour who will bring freedom and peace.

1. Bless'd be the Lord * the | God of | Israel:
who has come to his | people · and | set them | free.
2. The Lord has raised up for us a | mighty | Saviour:
born of the | house · of his | servant | David.
3. Through the holy prophets * God | promised · of | old:
to save us from our enemies *
from the | hands of | all who | hate us,
4. To show mercy | to our | forbears:
and to re | member · his | holy | covenant.
5. This was the oath God swore to our | father | Abraham:
to set us free | from the | hands of · our | enemies,
6. Free to worship him with | out | fear:
holy and righteous before him *
| all the | days of · our | life.
7. And you child *
shall be called the prophet of the | Most | high:
for you will go before the | Lord · to pre | pare his | way,
8. To give his people knowledge | of sal | vation:
by the for | givness | of their | sins.
9. In the tender compassion | of our | God:
the dawn from on | high shall | break up | on us.
10. To shine on those who dwell in darkness
and the | shadow · of | death:
and to guide our feet | into · the | way of | peace.

Read by Dr. Ross Sweet

The author describes an expansive vision of who Christ is, that is far beyond Christ as merely human. It poetically exalts Christ as Lord over all things, and affirms Jesus as the divine saviour who died and rose again for us.

After the reading

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

Hymn

- 1. In the Cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

- 2. When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me,
lo! it shines with peace and joy.

- 3. When the sun of bliss is beaming, light and love upon my way,
from the cross the radiance streaming,
adds more lustre to the day.

- 4. Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
by the Cross are sanctified;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

- 5. In the Cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

Sir J. Bowring (1792-1872)

What kind of king is Jesus? In this exchange with Pilate, just before his death, Jesus articulates that the reign of Christ is not about rule by force, the way Pilate likes to work. Rather it is about sacrificial love, demonstrated so profoundly in the death and resurrection of Jesus.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke, chapter twenty-three, beginning at the thirty-third verse.

After the Gospel

For the Gospel of the Lord,

Sermon: The Rev'd Sam Goodes

Intercessions

The response to each bidding is:

King of kings, and Lord of lords, in your mercy;
hear our prayer.

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers;
Grant that what we have asked in faith
we may by your grace receive,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Greeting of Peace

We are the body of Christ.
His Spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Hymn (offertory)

- 1. Christ triumphant, ever reigning,
Saviour, Master, King!
Lord of heaven, our lives sustaining,
hear us as we sing:

Refrain

*Yours the glory and the crown,
the high renown,
the eternal name!*

- 2. Word incarnate, truth revealing,
Son of Man on earth!
Power and majesty concealing
by your humble birth:
- 3. Suffering servant, scorned ill-treated,
victim crucified!
Death is through the cross defeated,
sinners justified:
- 4. Priestly King, enthroned for ever high in heaven above!
Sin and death and hell shall never stifle hymns of love:
- 5. So, our hearts and voices raising through the ages long,
ceaselessly upon you gazing,
this shall be our song

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation.
Through your goodness we have these gifts to offer.
Accept and use our offerings for your glory,
and for the service of your kingdom.
Blessed be God for ever.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Priest: The Lord be with you. All: And al - so with you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts. All: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our

All: God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
holy Father, almighty and eternal God.
For with the oil of gladness
you have anointed Christ the Lord, your only Son, to be our great high priest and king of all creation.
As priest, he offered himself once for all upon the altar of the cross and redeemed the human race by this perfect sacrifice of peace.
As king he claims dominion
over all your creatures,
that he may bring before your infinite majesty
a kingdom of truth and life,
a kingdom of holiness and grace,
a kingdom of justice, love and peace.
And so with angels and archangels
and all the heavenly host,
we proclaim your glory
and join their unending hymn of praise:

mf Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, f heav'n and earth are full of your mf glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
mf Blessed is he who comes in the name of the rit.
 Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Merciful God, we thank you for these gifts of your creation,
 this bread and wine,
 and we pray that by your Word and Holy Spirit,
 we who eat and drink them
 may be partakers of Christ's body and blood.

On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread;
 and when he had given you thanks
 he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying,
 'Take, eat. This is my body given for you.
 Do this in remembrance of me.'
 After supper, he took the cup,
 and again giving you thanks
 he gave it to his disciples, saying,
 'Drink from this, all of you.
 This is my blood of the new covenant shed for you and for many

(Please sit or kneel)

As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are confident to pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of Bread

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

We who are many are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

Agnus Dei

Je - sus, Lamb of God, have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, bear - er of our sins, have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, re - deem - er of the world: grant us your peace

Come let us take this holy sacrament of the body and blood of Christ in remembrance that he died for us, and feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

If you are visiting us today, you are welcome to receive the sacrament of Holy Communion if you are baptised and able to receive it in your own Christian tradition. If you do not wish to receive communion, you are welcome to come forward and receive a blessing. Please keep your hands by your side so we know that this is what you want.

Communion Hymn

- 1. In heavenly love abiding,
no change my heart shall fear;
and safe in such confiding,
for nothing changes here.
The storm may roar without me,
my heart may low be laid,
but God is round about me,
and can I be dismayed?

- 2. Wherever he may guide me,
no want shall turn me back;
my shepherd is beside me,
and nothing can I lack.
His wisdom ever waketh,
his sight is never dim,
he knows the way he taketh,
and I will walk with him.

- 3. Green pastures are before me,
which yet I have not seen;
bright skies will soon be o'er me,
where the dark clouds have been.
My hope I cannot measure,
my path to life is free,
my Saviour has my treasure and he will walk with me.

Anna L. Waring (1823 - 1910)

THE SENDING OUT OF GOD'S PEOPLE

Stir up, O Lord, the wills of your faithful people; that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may by you be plenteously rewarded. Father, we offer ourselves to you as a living sacrifice through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory.

Notices

Hymn

1. Lord, for the years your love has kept and guided, urged and inspired us, cheered us on our way, sought us and saved us, pardoned and provided: Lord of the years, we bring our thanks today.
2. Lord, for that word, the word of life which fires us, speaks to our hearts and sets our souls ablaze, teaches and trains, rebukes us and inspires us: Lord of the word, receive your people's praise.
3. Lord, for our land, in this our generation, spirits oppressed by pleasure, wealth and care: for young and old, for commonwealth and nation, Lord of our land, be pleased to hear our prayer.
4. Lord, for our world, when we disown and doubt him, loveless in strength, and comfortless in pain, hungry and helpless, lost indeed without him: Lord of the world, we pray that Christ may reign.
5. Lord, for ourselves; in living power remake us — self on the cross and Christ upon the throne, past put behind us, for the future take us: Lord of our lives, to live for Christ alone.

Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926). Used by Permission – CCL Licence 94792
