

Your Wedding

at
St Andrew's Church
Walkerville

Welcome

St Andrew's Anglican Church is one of the oldest churches in Adelaide. It has been a worshipping congregation for 170 years. During this time, many couples have chosen this church in which to be married. With family and friends, they have begun their new life together.

St Andrew's church is a sacred place in which people celebrate wonderful and significant moments in their lives.

We are delighted that you wish to be married here and we will do whatever we can to ensure your wedding day is a happy and memorable one.

These notes are to help you in your preparation.

Making a Booking

The first thing to do is to make a booking through the Parish Office, for the proposed date and time of your wedding. Confirm it within 3 weeks by payment of the Administrative Fee of $150.

Marriage Preparation

The Rector, The Reverend Sam Goodes (or one of the other parish clergy) will be the celebrant for your wedding and will help you in the planning of the service. Should you wish another minister to be involved in your wedding, please speak with the Rector about this.

There will be one or two interviews with the Rector regarding planning the details of the service. He will also conduct a rehearsal for the service prior to the day. You can contact him anytime should there be any difficulty you wish to discuss.

If one or both of the persons intending to be married, have previously been married and divorced, you must talk about this with the clergy as early possible as there is some extra paperwork involved.

Anglicare

Included with this booklet is information regarding Anglicare programs for those preparing to marry. We encourage you to plan to complete one of these programs early. You may find life too busy closer to the day. These programs are highly recommended and have a couple approval rating over 90%. They are a fun and informative way to spend quality time together. All your other preparation will be to do with your wedding day. These programs are an investment in your life together.

[They are not specifically religious and are provided as a service to the whole community. You may wish to recommend them to your friends whether they are being married in a Church or not.]

The forms of the Marriage Service are those currently in use in the Anglican Church of Australia. The Rector will discuss these with you so you may select one suitable for you, and will also help you with planning.

Music

St Andrew's has a long history of fine music and the magnificent pipe organ is the principal instrument. The Church has a tradition of live music and we wish to encourage this.

When you book your wedding, you also book the services of the organist, Ian Gray (Tel. 8294 1518). He will play at your wedding and help in the planning of music. You should contact him as soon as possible. A request for any other organist or group to play at the service must be discussed with him. It is the Church's policy that the organist's fee be paid in the event of another organist or group being requested and approved. Only organists or groups approved by Ian will be permitted to play.

Choosing Music

Ian welcomes the opportunity to discuss the music and let you hear how it sounds on the organ. The best time for this is usually after the Sunday morning service at about 11am. Ring him to make a time. He is also in the Parish Office on Fridays.

Here are some suggestions:

Bride's entry:

Bridal March from Lohengrin*	Richard Wagner
Prince of Denmark's March (Trumpet Voluntary)	Jeremiah Clarke
Trumpet Tune and Air	Henry Purcell
Te Deum	Marc Charpentier

Departure of bridal party:

Wedding March*	Felix Mendelssohn
Trumpet Tune and Air	Henry Purcell
Hornpipe	G. F. Handel

these two pieces are not interchangeable*

Music during signing of documents

Jesu, joy of man's desiring	J. S. Bach
Air on a G String	J. S. Bach
Canon in D	Johann Pachelbel
Selections from Water Music	G. F. Handel

Suggestions for hymns:

The Church hymn book is: BBC Songs of Praise

For the beauty of the earth	222
Father hear the prayer we offer	325
Lead us, Heavenly father lead us	299
Love divine all loves excelling	305
Now thank we all our God	238
O perfect Love	365
Praise to the Lord, the Almighty	19
Praise my soul, the King of Heaven	20
The king of love my Shepherd is	25
The Lord's my Shepherd	27

If you wish a CD to be played, please choose carefully. The music needs to be in keeping with the spirit of the service, and must be approved by the Rector. You will need to arrange for someone to work the CD player on the day. Some legal considerations regarding copyright must be considered if you are recording the service by video or audio. (See below)

If you wish to have a soloist or a choir or an instrumental group, then you must discuss this with Ian at least ONE month before the wedding. A rehearsal for a soloist is always required for which a supplementary fee of $50 is payable.

These hymns listed above are out of copyright and can be printed freely as long as the author and when the author lived are acknowledged.

If you choose other hymns, then copyright permission is required for reproducing the hymn in your wedding leaflet. The Rector will advise you about this.

If you are playing pre-recorded music at the wedding and it is being videoed, you must check the video operator has an AMCOS video license. (See further on next page)

Printing Booklets

If you wish to print any of the Order of Service from A Prayer Book for Australia, you must adhere to the following conditions:

- The wedding booklet must be dated.
- Every copy of the reproduction must carry the following acknowledgement:
Copyright 1995, The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation. From the text of A Prayer Book for Australia, published under the imprint of Broughton Books. Reproduced with permission.
- Each hymn or poem must acknowledge the author and include appropriate copyright information. (See the Rector about this)

If you are preparing the booklets yourself, consider paying for our parish office to do the layout, photocopying and folding for you.

To allow the service to flow smoothly and with a minimum of distraction, we ask video camera operators and photographers to be as discreet as possible. Therefore, give the following directions to those responsible:

- Video cameras must be operated using the available light.
- The camera operator is to use a minimum of movement.
- If you plan to have a video made, and you are playing copyright protected music during the service, the video operator must possess the necessary license obtainable from AMCOS. Professional video operators should have this license already. Please check this.
- Flash photographs may be taken as the bride comes in, during posed shots after the signing of the documents and of the couple as they leave. Other photographs should be taken with the available light and with a minimum of distraction to all.

Photographers & Video Operators

Professional photographers and video operators are generally quite cooperative with these requests.

The Church provides two arrangements of flowers on either side of the Crucifix behind the altar.

If you wish, you may provide two arrangements in vases, to stand on pedestals at either side of the Sanctuary. If these arrangements are in your vases, you may wish to take these to the Reception. You can, of course, use Church urns if you wish and leave them in the Church.

You can tie or hang flowers/bows on the ends of the pews. No drawing pins or adhesives please.

For further information about flowers, contact: Jennie Coleman—Tel.8336 8557.

Confetti is not permitted at St. Andrew's. Dried rose petals are easily obtained from florists or your family may wish to gather and prepare them. Unfortunately, fresh rose petals produce a slipping hazard when crushed under foot and we ask that dried petals only be used.

All three entrances to the Church are accessible by wheelchairs. Disabled parking spaces are available in the car park behind the church. Entry from Fuller St. car park.

St Andrew's has a fine peal of 6 bells which are rung by a team of six experienced bell ringers. If you would like to have these rung at your wedding, please let the Parish Office or the Rector know as soon as you can. There is an additional cost of $300 for this. Unfortunately we cannot guarantee sufficient ringers will be available. If you have paid for bells and they are unable to ring, we will refund the money already paid for the bells. Because of the bell ringers' Sunday commitments, the bells cannot be rung for Sunday weddings.

If you want further information, contact the Captain of the Bell Tower, Stephanie Harrington – Tel. 8364 6758.
