Mothering Sunday Litany: Mothers and Those Who Mother Us

We thank you, God, for the ways you mother us.

Like a mother hen gathering her chicks, you shelter us with your wings, comforting and protecting us.

Like a mother who teaches and nurtures, you guide us with wisdom and patience, always present when we need you.

Like a mother who forgives and embraces, you welcome us with open arms, no matter where we've been or what we've done.

Like a mother who sacrifices for the good of her children, you gave yourself completely for us, showing love and grace.

For your care and mothering presence, we offer our thanks.

May we reflect your love to others as we have been loved by you.

On this Mothering Sunday, we give thanks for mothers and those who mother and nurture us, giving thanks for the love, care and wisdom they offer.

For mothers who have given birth to us, nurturing us with love and guidance,

We are grateful, God

For all those who mother us, whether by blood or by choice, who offer us comfort, support, and encouragement

We are grateful, God

For the women who care for children as mothers do, whether as grandmothers, aunts, mentors or friends,

We are grateful, God

For the women who have stepped into the role of mother with kindness and grace, guiding and loving when needed most.

We are grateful, God

For the mothers who have faced challenges and hardships with courage, showing us what it means to endure and love,

We are grateful, God

For those who have shown us the heart of a mother, offering wisdom, love, and care.

We are grateful, God

For those who have lost their mothers or who long to be mothers, we pray for their comfort and peace.
For all those who have mothered us, with their love and sacrifices,
we offer our deepest gratitude.
May we also be a source of love and care to others, as they have been to us. Amen.

Sentence of the Day

God has reconciled us to himself through Christ, and given us the ministry of reconciliation. 2 Corinthians 5:18

Prayer of Preparation

Let us pray

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Two Great Commandments

‘Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ Jesus said: ‘This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself.’

Kyrie (said at 8.00am )

Lord, have mercy. Lord have mercy,
Christ, have mercy, Christ have mercy,
Lord, have mercy, Lord have mercy.

Kyrie (sung at 9.30am)

Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy.
Christ have mercy, Christ have mercy, Christ have mercy.
Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy.

Trisagion

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal, have mercy on us.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray

God of compassion,
you are slow to anger, and full of mercy,
welcoming sinners who return to you with penitent hearts:
receive in your loving embrace all who come home to you,
and seat them at your bountiful table,
that, with all your children,
they may feast with delight on all that satisfies the hungry heart.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Saviour, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading: Joshua 5: 2-12

After the reading

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

Psalms 32

<sup>1</sup> Blessed are those whose sin is forgiven:
whose iniquity is put away.

<sup>2</sup> Blessed are those to whom the Lord imputes no blame:
and in whose spirit there is no guile.

<sup>3</sup> For whilst I held my tongue:
my bones wasted away with my daily complaining.

<sup>4</sup> Your hand was heavy upon me day and night:
and my moisture was dried up like a drought in summer.

<sup>5</sup> Then I acknowledged my sin to you:
and my iniquity I did not hide;

<sup>6</sup> I said 'I will confess my transgressions to the Lord':
and so you forgave the wickedness of my sin.

<sup>7</sup> For this cause shall everyone that is faithful make their prayer to you in the day of trouble:
and in the time of the great water-flood,
it shall not come near them.

<sup>8</sup> You are a place to hide me in,
you will preserve me from trouble:
you will surround me with deliverance on every side.

<sup>9</sup> 'I will instruct you, and direct you in the way that you should go:
I will fasten my eye upon you, and give you counsel.

<sup>10</sup> 'Be not like horse or mule, that have no understanding:
whose forward course must be curbed with bit and bridle.'

<sup>11</sup> Great tribulations remain for the ungodly:
but whoever puts their trust in the Lord,
mercy embraces them on every side.

<sup>12</sup> Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous, and be glad:
and shout for joy, all you that are true of heart.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5: 16-21

After the reading

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn (please stand)

1. Jesus calls us: o'er the tumult of our life's wild restless sea,
day by day his sweet voice soundeth,
saying, 'Christian, follow me':
2. As of old Saint Andrew heard it by the Galilean lake, turned from home and toil and kindred leaving all for his dear sake.
3. Jesus calls us from the worship of the vain world's golden store,
from each idol that would keep us,
saying, 'Christian, love me more'.
4. In our joys and in our sorrows, days of toil and hours of ease,
still he calls, in cares and pleasures,
that we love him more than these.
5. Jesus calls us: by thy mercies,
Saviour, make us hear thy call,
give our hearts to thy obedience,
serve and love thee best of all.

Cecil Francis Alexander (1818-95) altd

Gospel Reading: Luke 15: 11-32

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Luke, chapter fifteen, beginning at the eleventh verse.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

After the Gospel the reader says

For the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Address – Melissa Jones, Mayor, Town of Walkerville

Affirmation of Faith (please stand)

Let us together affirm the faith of the Church.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Intercessions (please sit or kneel) – refer to Cycle of Prayer on page 20

Let us pray for the world and for the church.

The response to each petition is:

God of grace,
hear our prayer.

HOPE25 Prayer:

God of Hope
you call on us to be your witnesses in this uncertain world;
by your Spirit awaken in us a true vision of your kingdom, a greater certainty of our salvation, and a deeper dedication to your service;
that through our words and actions the same Spirit
may bring many to celebrate the hope that we can have in Jesus Christ,
in whose name we pray.
Amen.

Parish prayer:

God our Father, you have made us members of Christ and of his church in this parish. May our worship be the offering of our hearts and lives to you. Help us to reach out in welcome to newcomers and visitors, to encourage and care for each other in friendship and fellowship, and to grow in grace, love and unity; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

After the intercessions:

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.
Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Prayer of Approach

Let us pray

We do not presume
to come to your table, merciful Lord,
trusting in our own righteousness,
but in your manifold and great mercies.

We are not worthy
so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table.

But you are the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy.

Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord,
so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ,
and to drink his blood,
that we may evermore dwell in him,
and he in us. Amen.

Confession

Compassion and forgiveness belong to the Lord our God, though we have rebelled and wandered far off.

Silence may be kept.

Let us then confess our sins in penitence and faith.

O God, you have searched us out and known us,
and all that we are is open to you.

We confess that we have sinned:
we have used our power to dominate
and our weakness to manipulate;
we have evaded responsibility
and failed to confront evil;
we have denied dignity
to ourselves and to each other,
and fallen into despair.

We turn to you, oh God,
we renounce evil;
we claim your love;
we choose to be made whole.

Absolution

Almighty God,
who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith:
pardon you and set you free from all your sins,
strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Greeting of Peace

We are the body of Christ.

His Spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you
and also with you.

Offertory Hymn – during this hymn the bread and wine for Holy Communion will be presented, and the Collection taken

1. God of Eve and God of Mary,
God of love and mother-earth,
thank you for the ones who with us
shared their life and gave us birth.
2. As you came to earth in Jesus,
so you come to us today;
you are present in our caring that prepares us for life's way.
3. Thank you that the Church, our Mother,
gives us bread and fills our cup,
and the comfort of the Spirit
warms our hearts and lifts us up.
4. Thank you for belonging, shelter,
bonds of friendship, ties of blood,
and for those who have no children,
yet are parents under God.
5. God of Eve and God of Mary,
Christ our brother, human Son,
Spirit, caring like a Mother,
take our love and make us one!

Fred Kaan (1929-2009)

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation.
Through your goodness we have these gifts to share.
Accept and use our offerings for your glory
and for the service of your kingdom.
Blessed be God for ever.

Great Thanksgiving Prayer

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Nurturing God, we thank and praise you because like a mother you brought all things into being.

Through trial and truth-telling, touch and tenderness
you nurtured a people
and led them in the ways of justice and of peace.

When the time came for you to dwell among us in flesh and blood,
your Holy Spirit called a woman to be the God-bearer,
that in her we may behold
that our bodies could bring forth your glory.

Redeeming God, you called a woman to be closest to your Son at the moment of his nativity, at the place of his crucifixion,
and in the wonder of his resurrection.
Like a mother hen gathering her chicks
you draw the weary, the lost, and the betrayed to the abundant table of your kingdom.

And so we join with angels and archangels
and all the household of heaven to sing the song of your eternal joy:
(sung at 9.30am)

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord;
Hosanna in the highest.

Merciful God, we thank you for these gifts of your creation, this bread and wine, and we pray that by your Word and Holy Spirit,
we who eat and drink them may be partakers
of Christ's body and blood.

On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread;
and when he had given you thanks
he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying,
'Take, eat. This is my body given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.'

After supper, he took the cup,
 and again giving you thanks
 he gave it to his disciples, saying,
 'Drink from this, all of you.
 This is my blood of the new covenant shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
 Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith. (sung at 9.30am)

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

You have gathered us together to feed on Christ
 and to remember all he has done for us:

Fill us with your Spirit
 that we may follow Jesus
 in all we do and say,
 working for justice and bringing your peace
 to this world that you have made.

Accept our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord. (sung at 9.30am)

Blessing and honour, glory and power,
 are yours for ever and ever, Amen.

As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are confident to pray:
(please sit or kneel)

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of Bread and Communion

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
We who are many are one body:
for we all share in the one bread.

The congregation joins in the Agnus Dei (sung at 9.30am)

Jesus, Lamb of God, have mercy on us.
Jesus, bearer of our sins, have mercy on us.
Jesus, redeemer of the world, grant us your peace.

Invitation to Communion

The gifts of God for the people of God. Come, let us take this holy sacrament of the body and blood of Christ in remembrance that he died for us, and feed on him in our hearts, by faith, with thanksgiving.

Administration of Communion

All who wish to receive Holy Communion are invited to come forward at the appropriate time. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, please also come forward and indicate this by bowing your head.

Gluten-free bread is available upon request.

We kindly ask that you receive the bread and wine separately rather than dipping the wafer into the cup.

Communion Hymn

- 1. Christ bids us break the bread and share the cup he gave,
in token of the blood he shed
for those he died to save.
- 2. It was for us he came,
to bear, by human birth,
a crown of thorn, a cross of shame,
for every child of earth.
- 3. The Saviour crucified
in glory rose again:
we here remember him who died,
ascended now to reign.
- 4. Our hearts his word obey,
in thankfulness and love:
we feed on Christ by faith today
and feast with him above.

5. O Christ, once lifted up that we might be forgiven,
we take the bread and drink the cup
and share the life of heaven.

Timothy Dudley-Smith (1926-2024)

Prayer after Communion

Let us pray

Compassionate and loving God,
through your Son Jesus Christ
you have fed us
and have reconciled your people to yourself.
Following his example of fasting and prayer,
may we obey you with willing hearts
and serve one another in holy love.

Father, we offer ourselves to you
as a living sacrifice
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit
to live and work to your praise and glory.

Simnel Cake Blessing

God of all good gifts,
we thank you for this cake, a symbol of love, hope, and joy.
Bless those who have prepared it and those who share in it, and may it nourish us as we journey toward Easter. Amen.

Notices – see page 22

Final Hymn

Lift high the Cross, the love of Christ proclaim till all the world adore his sacred name.

1. Come, let us follow where our Captain trod,
our King victorious, Christ the Son of God:
7. O Lord, once lifted on the glorious tree,
as thou hast promised, draw us unto thee:
8. Let every race and every language tell of him who saves our souls from death and hell:
9. From farthest regions let them homage bring,
and on his cross adore their Saviour King:

G. W. Kitchin (1827-1912) and M. R Newbolt (1874-1956)

Blessing & Dismissal

Christ our Saviour draw you to himself, that you may find in him crucified a sure ground for faith, a firm support for hope, and the assurance of sin forgiven; and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen.

Organ Postlude – we sit in reflection

Lent 4 Bible Reading Introductions & Reflection Questions

Joshua 5:2-12 highlights the tension between the past and the future, between dependence on divine provision in the wilderness and stepping into a new reality of co-labouring with the Creator. The act of circumcision renews their identity as a covenant people, reminding them that faithfulness is not just about receiving promises but about living into them. The shift from manna to the land's produce invites reflection on how divine provision changes over time. It challenges us to recognise moments when we must let go of the past and trust in the new ways the Divine is sustaining us.

How does this reading invite us to reflect on moments of transition in our own faith journeys?

In 2 Corinthians 5:16-21 Paul speaks of the transformation that comes through Christ – those in Christ are a new creation, no longer defined by the past but reconciled to the Divine. This reconciliation is both a gift and a calling, as we are entrusted to be ambassadors of divine love in the world.

What does it mean to see ourselves and others as a 'new creation' rather than through human judgments?

Luke 15:11-32, the much-loved parable of the Prodigal Son, is not just a story about repentance but also about grace. The younger son, expecting only a servant's place, is welcomed as a beloved child, while the older son struggles to accept such generosity. This story challenges us to consider how we receive grace and whether we rejoice in others' restoration or resist when it disrupts our sense of fairness.

What does it mean to celebrate God's mercy and love instead of judging others?
