Today's Services

8.00am Holy Communion (said)

9.30am Holy Communion (sung) and Ministry of Healing

Celebrant and Preacher: The Rev'd Tracey Gracey

Processional Hymn (please stand if able)

- 1. Rejoice in God's saints, today and all days!
A world without saints forgets how to praise.
Their faith in acquiring the habit of prayer,
their depth of adoring, Lord, help us to share.
- 2. Some march with events to turn them God's way;
some need to withdraw, the better to pray;
some carry the gospel through fire and through flood:
our world is their parish: their purpose is God.
- 3. Rejoice in those saints, unpraised and unknown,
who bear someone's cross, or shoulder their own:
they shame our complaining, our comforts, our cares:
what patience in caring, what courage, is theirs!
- 4. Rejoice in God's saints, today and all days!
A world without saints forgets how to praise.
In loving, in living, they prove it is true:
their way of self-giving, Lord, leads us to you.

Frederick Pratt Green (1903-2000)

Gathering in God's Name

We gather in the name of God with the saints of every generation, bound together by God's love.

May we emulate their light by sharing God's love.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Gathering Prayer

The saints call us to worship.

For Mary, the mother of Jesus, who said “yes” to God.

We give thanks and follow

For Andrew, who left his nets to follow Jesus, and who invited others to “come and see.”

We give thanks and follow

For Teresa of Calcutta, who saw Christ in the poor.

We give thanks and follow

For Francis of Assisi, who loved all creatures and saw the beauty in God’s creation.

We give thanks and follow

For Mary MacKillop, Australia’s first saint,
who brought education and hope to those most in need.

We give thanks and follow

For the saints we see every day:
the parents, teachers, and neighbours who show us kindness.

We give thanks and follow

For grandparents, mentors, and friends who share their wisdom and stories with us

We give thanks and follow

For those who stand for justice, who lend a hand to the lonely,
who fight for what is right,

We give thanks and follow

For each of us here, learning, growing,
and following in the footsteps of all who have come before.

We give thanks and follow

Opening Prayer

Loving God,

we your saints gather to worship and praise you this day.
We celebrate the saints who have served you and been an example for us throughout the past.
We give you thanks for the joy of being a part of the communion of saints with those who have gone before and those of your people scattered throughout the earth.
Open us to your Spirit to continue being the saints
you have called us to be.
In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Confession

We are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses.

Silence is kept

Let us then run our race, laying aside every weight and bringing our sins to the Lord with a sincere and true heart.

Lord, we have sinned in thought, word and deed:

Lord, have mercy

Lord, have mercy

We are truly sorry and we ask you to forgive us:

Christ, have mercy

Christ, have mercy

Help us by your spirit to live in newness of life:

Lord, have mercy

Lord, have mercy

Absolution

God forgives you

Forgive yourself

Forgive others

Gloria (sung at 9.30am)

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to God's people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and peace to God's peo-ple on earth.

Children's Talk

First Reading: Daniel 7: 1-3, 15-18

After the reading

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

Psalm 149

¹ O praise the Lord, and sing to the Lord a new song:
O praise him in the assembly of the faithful.

² Let Israel rejoice in him that made him:
let the children of Zion be joyful in their king.

³ Let them praise him in the dance:
let them sing his praise with timbrel and with harp.

⁴ For the Lord takes delight in his people:
he adorns the meek with his salvation.

⁵ Let his faithful ones exult in his glory:
let them sing for joy upon their beds.

⁶ Let the high praises of God be in their mouths:
and a two-edged sword in their hands,

⁷ To execute vengeance on the nations:
and chastisement upon the peoples,

⁸ To bind their kings in chains:
and their nobles with fetters of iron,

⁹ To visit upon them the judgement that is decreed:
such honour belongs to all his faithful servants.

Praise the Lord.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1: 11-23

After the reading

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn (please stand if able)

- 1. Blest are the pure in heart,
for they shall see our God;
the secret of the Lord is theirs,
their soul is Christ's abode.
- 2. The Lord, who left the heavens
our life and peace to bring,
to dwell in lowliness with men,
their pattern and their King;
- 3. Still to the lowly soul
he doth himself impart,
and for his dwelling and his throne
chooseth the pure in heart.
- 4. Lord, we thy presence seek;
may ours this blessing be;
give us a pure and lowly heart,
a temple meet for thee.

John Keble (1792-1866) and others

Gospel Reading: Luke 6: 20-31 (please remain standing if able)

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Luke, chapter six, beginning at the twentieth verse.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

After the Gospel the reader says

Hear the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sermon – Celebrant

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

A Candle Litany of Remembrance

For those who lit our lives with joy,
for those who touched us with tenderness,
for those whose loss fills us with longing,
We give thanks in glad remembrance.

We remember the light-filled ones,
who enkindled our spirits with their teaching and the spark of their faith.
We give thanks in glad remembrance.

We remember the risk-takers,
who faced their fears and sought justice,
even when the cost was great.
We give thanks in glad remembrance.

We remember the vulnerable ones,
who allowed us to walk with them in their need,
teaching us compassion and care.
We give thanks in glad remembrance.

We remember the faith-filled ones,
who brought us closer to God
through their words and example.
We give thanks in glad remembrance.

We remember the brave ones,
who carried their struggles with hope
and showed us how to trust in times of sorrow.
We give thanks in glad remembrance.

We remember the great lovers of life,
whose humour and enthusiasm lifted our spirits.
The nurturers, who gave us strength, guidance, and care,
whether in body, mind, or spirit.
We give thanks in glad remembrance.

We remember with compassion:
those who took their own lives,
those who died through violence or hatred,
those who carried anger and were never reconciled,
those who faced death with fear or despair,
those whose actions brought harm to themselves or others,
and all who died in distress
May they rest in your peace and love.

And we remember that though death may part us,
love remains eternal; and in Christ there is life beyond death.
Amen.

Gathering these prayers together, we say
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

Greeting of Peace (please stand if able)

We are the body of Christ.
God's peace be with you
and also with you.

Offertory Hymn – during this hymn the bread and wine for Holy Communion will be presented, and the Collection taken

- 1. Glory to you, O God,
for all your saints in light,
who nobly waged and won
the fierce and well-fought fight.
 Their praises sing,
 who life outpoured
 by fire and sword
 for Christ their King.

2. Thanks be to you, O Lord, for saints your Spirit stirred in humble paths to live
your life and speak your word.

Unnumbered they whose shining light
informs our sight
from day to day.

3. Lord God of truth and love,
'Your kingdom come', we pray;
give us your grace to know your truth and walk your way.

Your will be done
here on this earth,
till saints in earth
and heaven are one.

Howard Charles Adie Gaunt (1902-83)

Prayer over the Gifts (please remain standing if able)

As the many threads
are made one in the cloth,
As the many grains
are made one in the bread,
As the many grapes
are made one in the wine,
So we who are many are made one
as we gather around this table
Laid with one cloth
Set with one cup
Fed with one loaf.

Great Thanksgiving Prayer

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

This day we celebrate God's saints,
those people who have tried to live in God's way,
gently and firmly turning the world around-
and even upside down-to make it a better place for all of God's children.

There are saints who have famous names:

St. Mary Magdalene

St. Peter

St. Mary the Mother of Jesus

St. James

St. Joanna

St. Mark

St. Andrew

And many others.

There are saints whose names we do not know:

Unnamed caregivers

Forgotten single parents

Amnesty letter writers

God's volunteers and church workers

There are those throughout history who gave their all for what they believed in:

Julian of Norwich

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Martin Luther King

Teresa of Calcutta

Florence Nightingale

You have called us to be saints:
to work for justice and peace,
For freedom and human rights,
to bring laughter and a human touch,
healing and wholeness,
acceptance and understanding,
into a world in need.

And so we praise you,
joining with your faithful people of every time and place,
singing the eternal song: (sung at 9.30am)

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord;
Hosanna in the highest.

The musical score is written on five staves, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff contains the lyrics 'Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,'. The second staff contains 'God of pow'r and might, hea - ven - and earth are'. The third staff contains 'full_ of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in_ the high - est.' The fourth staff contains 'Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the'. The fifth staff contains 'Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.' The score uses various musical notations including quarter notes, eighth notes, and rests.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, hea - ven - and earth are full_ of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in_ the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Accept our thanks
for these gifts of bread and wine;
may we who receive them,
as Jesus said,
share his body and his blood.

On the night he was betrayed, he took bread
and gave you thanks.

He broke the bread and gave it to his friends, and said,
'Take and eat. This is my body given for you.

Do this in remembrance of me.'

After supper he took the cup and gave you thanks.

He shared the cup with them and said,

'This is my blood poured out
so that sins may be forgiven.

Do this in remembrance of me.'

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith: (sung at 9.30am)

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We open ourselves to your Spirit,

As we come, your holy people, to your table.

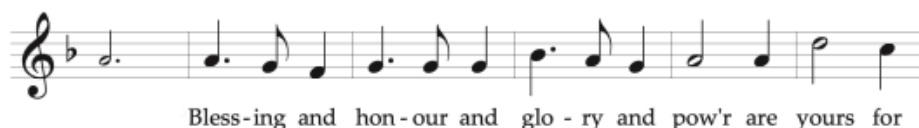

We present these gifts and pray that by sharing in them
we may be renewed in faith,

ready to share your welcoming love with all we meet.

We join by faith with all your people, to live as a sign of your presence in this world: (sung at 9.30am)

Blessing and honour, glory and power,
are yours for ever and ever, Amen.

The Breaking of Bread and Communion

As this broken bread was once many grains,
which have been gathered together and made one bread:
so may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

The congregation joins in the Agnus Dei (sung at 9.30am)

Jesus, Lamb of God, have mercy on us.

Jesus, bearer of our sins, have mercy on us.

Jesus, redeemer of the world, grant us your peace.

Invitation to Communion

Bread and wine; the gifts of God for the people of God.
May we who share these gifts be found in Christ
and Christ in us.

Administration of Communion

All who wish to receive Holy Communion are invited to form a single-file line and kneel/stand at the Altar rail when a space is available.

If you would prefer to receive a blessing, please also come forward and indicate this by bowing your head.

Gluten-free bread is available upon request.

We kindly ask that you receive the bread and wine separately rather than dipping the wafer into the cup.

If you wish to receive the Ministry of Healing, please proceed to the foyer when you have received the Holy Communion.

Communion Hymn

1. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me bring your love;
where there is injury, your pardon, Lord;
and where there's doubt, true faith in you:

*O Master, grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved, as to love with all my soul.*

2. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope;
where there is darkness, let me bring your light;
and where there's sadness, bring your joy:

*O Master, grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved, as to love with all my soul.*

3. Make me a channel of your peace;
for when we give we will ourselves receive.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned
and in dying that we gain eternal life.

From a prayer attributed to St. Francis (1182–1226)

Prayer after Communion

Let us pray

Creator God,

you have welcomed us to your table, fed us with your bread and wine, nourished us with your eternal love, and filled us with a renewed sense of your divine peace.

Send us forth from this place empowered to share the good news of your active presence in the world, to witness to the wonders of your creation, and to love you and love our neighbour with all our heart and mind and strength and soul. Amen.

Final Hymn (please stand if able)

- 1. Thanks be to God for his saints of each past generation, one with us still in one body, one great congregation;
with them proclaim,
Jesus for ever the same,
Author of life and salvation.
- 2. Thanks be to God for his blessings which daily surround us;
glory to Christ, the Redeemer who sought us and found us,
who, from the grave
rose, the almighty to save,
breaking the fetters that bound us.
- 3. Thanks be to God for the years that are yet in his keeping,
trusting each day to the care of a Father unsleeping,
on to the end,
Christ our companion and friend,
joy at the last for our weeping.
- 4. Thanks be to God who has called us and daily defends us, who with the Son and the Spirit unchanging befriends us;
now in that name,
Jesus for ever the same,
forth to his service he sends us.

Anglican Diocese
of Adelaide

The Anglican Diocese of Adelaide warmly invites you to join us to mark the commencement of the annual 16 Days of Activism against gender-based violence.

Tuesday 25 November 2025 | 2pm – 3pm

St Andrew's Anglican Church, 43 Church Terrace, Walkerville

We will commence with a short time of prayer and reflection in St Andrew's Church to remember and honour those affected by violence against women and girls locally and around the world as part of the United Nations Women annual campaign.

The service will be followed by the dedication of a Purple Bench in the grounds of the Belt Reserve, corner of Fuller Street and Church Terrace Walkerville, adjacent to St Andrew's Church.

We will finish with afternoon tea in the church hall.

Please RSVP to support@adelaideanglicans.com
if you can join with us to highlight this important issue.

The Purple Bench project was first set up in Nova Scotia, Canada in 2015 and purple benches are now springing up, worldwide. Painted bright purple, each bench is situated in a public place and displays a plaque, in memory of those who have died through domestic or family violence. The bench also displays crisis helpline numbers for those who find themselves in need. Purple is associated with the global Domestic Violence Awareness Movement.

The Anglican Diocese of Adelaide's domestic & family violence working group supports the installation of purple benches in church and public spaces to honour all victim-survivors of domestic & family violence.

The dedication of this bench seeks to publicly reflect the commitment of the Diocese of Adelaide to the Anglican Church of Australia's Ten Commitments for the prevention of and response to domestic and family violence
